THE REPUBLICAN ELEPHANT.

Senator Jones Accused of Twisting its tail.

The New York Mercury has a picture of Senator Jones holding the Republican elephant up by the tail like a dead rat. On the animal are two tags labeled "Bond Bill" "Tariff Bill." The cartoon is accompanied by the following:

Senator John P. Jones, of Gold Hill Nev., who has been having so much fun of late twisting the tail of the Republican elephant, is an Englishman by birth. He first saw light in Herefordshire, in 1830, and came to this country with his fond parents about one year later.

His early youth was passed in northern Ohio, where he imbibed the abolition sentiment of the "Western Reserve." The excitement over the discovery of gold in California drew him to that State later on and he went into both mining and politics. He became a State Senator and was in a fair way to become Governor when he pulled up stakes and moved to Nevada.

Since 1867 his interests, aside from politics, have been almost entirely in mining, and since 1873, when he took his seat in the United States Senate, his mind has been focused upon the one idea of booming silver. He protested against "the crime of 1873," and has ever since worked unceasingly for the reopening of the mints to the free coinage of silver.

Until 1892 Mr. Jones acted with the Republicans, but since then he has been a "wild eyed Pop." The truth is he is solid for Jones and free silver and he will be found voting with and spouting for the party that will do the most for that enterprising firm.

Jones with the aid of most of his colleagues on the Senate Finance Committee, recently gave the tail of the Republican elephant a twist on the bond bill, which was sent over by Czar Reed, and he has since twisted the old beast's tail again on the tariff, in both cases tying a free silver knot in its tail.

Jones is as obnoxious to the Republican elephant as ex-Keeper Byrne is to Johanna, the Barnum & Bailey chimpanzee.

Lost on the Ice.

Buffalo, N. Y., Feb. 21.—It is believed that 15 men were lost on the ice outside the harbor during last night's storm. They went out yesterday afternoon to fish through the ice and were blinded by the squall that arose afterwards.

Then we do want your money. Such bargains were never heard of any place except at

THE GRAND JURY REPORT.

THEY FIND THE SCHOOL TRUSTEES HAVE VIOLATED THE LAW.

Some Uncollected Fees in the Clerks Office

State and County Institutions Carefully Inspected.

Carson City, Nev., Feb. 21, 1896.
To the Hon. C. E. Mack, District Judge, First Judicial District of Nevada:—This Grand Jury impaneled and instructed by your Honor on the 6th day of Feb. 1896, submit the following report of their investigation:—
All matters suggested and brought before us were diligently inquired into, and considered carefully. True bills of indictment to the number of 8 have been found as follows: Two for burglary, one for house-breaking, one for assault with intent to commit murder, one for grand larceny, and one for assault with a deadly weapon. One bill charging grand larceny was ignored.

COUNTY OFFICERS.

The books and records of the various officials of the county were thoroughly and systematically examined by an expert in connection with a committee of the Grand Jury beginning with October, 1892, (on which date a former Grand Jury ended their examination) up to Jan. 1, 1896. The records and books are in a satisfactory condition, properly and neatly kept, indicating efficiency in this respect on the part of the officials. We find however that the fees which should have been collected by the County Clerks have not been so collected to the amount of $452.35, to-wit: Wm. Hy Deane's term, $150.55; E. Aube's term, $108.15; Geo. A. Tyrrell's term, $103.65. To the end that these amounts may be lost to the County, we recommend a committee on the part of the County Commissioners and District Attorney to recover the same by legal proceedings if necessary. We also respectfully invite the attention of the County Commissioners to the provision of law making the collection of all fees by County officers and their deputies necessary before allowance of their salaries.

PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

In the matter of the charges of unlawful expenditure of moneys by the School Board of Dist. No. 1, these charges on investigation reveal the following facts: First that there was a violation of the law in this respect, more than $500 having been expended in violation of Sec. 2, Art. 5 of the school law. We are satisfied however, from all the investigations made that no portion of this expenditure was unnecessary, but actually a great necessity. Second, all material was purchased at the lowest market price and was of the best quality; the wages paid were only fair, usual and reasonable. Third, that no member of the Board had any interest in the expenditure other than the welfare of the County. No penalty being subscribed for a violation of Sec. 2, Art. 5, the law becomes inoperative. Said law in our opinion should be amended to make its provisions effective.

We, in conclusion, respectfully request the School Trustees of this district to have a stairway made on the west side of the room in the Central building, in which Miss Swift is teacher, so that in case of fire or anything of an exciting nature occurring, the scholars will be enabled to escape safely from the building. We further recommend that the front stairway be made twelve feet wide; also that a large door be put in on the south side from the room in which Miss French is teaching, as the stairway leading to said door ends against the wall, and that the doors throughout be hung so as to open both in and out.

COUNTY JAIL.

A close inspection of our County Jail fails to disclose any cause for complaint on our part, the sanitary requirements of a prison seem to be appreciated by the officers in charge, and due attention is given to cleanliness throughout.

POOR FARM.

There are 17 indigent persons at the Poor Farm, who are apparently as comfortable and contented as their physical condition permits. The buildings are not up to the modern requirements, but we believe them to be as good as the present financial condition of the county can afford.

We deem it proper to refer to the unsatisfactory condition of the water in use for domestic purposes, and recommend that a more wholesome and pure supply be provided for at the earliest possible period. The food, beds and clothing furnished the sick and indigent furnish no cause for complaint.

ORPHANS HOME.

The inmates of this institution are bounteously provided for in the way of food, clothing and necessary comforts. We find however, an urgent necessity for a safer system of lighting the institution, other than with coal oil; too many small and helpless children are here domiciled to be exposed to the dangers of this source of fire, especially when other and more secure means of illuminating are at hand. Another defect requiring immediate attention is the lack of proper safe and easy means of egress from the boys dormitory, for use in case of panic or fire.

STATE PRISON.

Here we find everything to commend, nothing to say aught against. An inspection of our State Prison affords great satisfaction; everything in every department is inviting to the sight; dirt and filth are nowhere to be found, and this condition of affairs must be a source of gratification to all in charge, as well as those compelled to share the advantages here afforded over those generally met with in similar institutions.

LOTTERIES, SALE OF CIGARETTES AND CIGARETTE PAPERS.

Continuous efforts have been by us made, to suppress these growing evils, which still continue to flourish in spite of our efforts to the contrary. A committee to investigate these evils, with instructions to use all hopeful efforts, in conjunction with the officers of this county to bring offenders to justice, were made last spring. We are compelled, however, at this time to confess that the results are unsatisfactory; to the discredit of the officers of the county, open violations of the law are being made daily in both instances. We most earnestly ask the Court to instruct and demand of the proper officials to continue their efforts in stamping out these disgraceful violations of the law.

CURFEW ORDINANCE.

In view of the recent arrests among the juvenile members of this community, resulting in a great measure from the failure of the proper officers to enforce this ordinance.

We demand and expect of them the enforcement of this ordinance to its fullest extent. A great many suggestions have been made to this Grand Jury, some of which we have given much time in investigating, resulting in much good. We trust our action will meet with the approval of the citizens of Ormsby County, and your honor, to whom we tender our thanks, for your kindly words of advice.

Fitzsimmons' the Winner.

[Special to the APPEAL.]

San Francisco, Feb. 21:—Fitzsimmons placed his right hand rudely on Maher's left jaw, put him out in less than one minute. Corbett telegraphed a challenge to the winner. Fight occurred at Langtry, Texas. Fitz ready to meet Corbett at any time. Little excitement here, but plenty of money ready to back Jim.

No Paper Tomorrow.

It being Washington's Birthday today. No paper will be issued from this office tomorrow.

Will Not be Indicted.

The APPEAL can state positively to the public that Coffey will not be held in contempt by the U. S. Court. He will not be indicted by the Grand Jury and he will not be proceeded against on information. In other words, the law that sent Brule to three months imprisonment for packing money to Langevin, is not strong enough to send the man we furnished the coin.

The reason for this will be fully explained to the public by the APPEAL later on. We believe the public are entitled to know the facts in the case and we should use our best endeavors to obtain them.

It is reported that Wm. Thompson of Reno has sold Gen. C. C. Powning the Thompson block for $25,000, a forfeit of $5,000 having been paid down. The full terms of the sale have not been made public, but the parties interested say the sale is a go.

CHEAP CUSTOM WORK A DECEPTION.

A style of tailoring is rapidly gaining headway which is but an imposition upon the consumer and a detriment to the workman. The cheap custom work or what is called "special order work," is a shrewd dodge for the purpose of deceiving the customer into the belief that he is obtaining custom work at ready made prices. The real worth of custom work lies in the exactness of the fit, and the thoroughness in which it is made. Cheap custom work is therefore inferior to ready made work.

Large concerns, some also engaged in ready made work have grown up of late and depend for patronage upon retail stores, and have numerous agents scattered everywhere soliciting orders and gain trade because of the strikingly cheap prices offered for goods made to order. As a rule these agents seldom obtain an order twice from the same person.

It is about time that this scheme was exposed to the people and ABE COHN of the EMPORIUM shows up the fraud. If you want clothes that fit and are tried on as often as is necessary call at the EMPORIUM Court House Building, Carson City, Nevada.
